U.S. GRAND JURY SUBPOENA RELEASED BY CITY ATTORNEY

Subpoena Requests Documents From a Former San Diego Deputy City Attorney

Under the California Public Records Act, news organizations have requested documents related to the U.S. Attorney's criminal investigation of the City of San Diego's financial disclosure practices and pension system.

Today, San Diego City Attorney Michael Aguirre released to the news media the latest U.S. Grand Jury subpoena which was issued this morning. The subpoena requests a number of documents and communications from January 1, 2000 to the present concerning the salaries, benefits, and wages paid to former San Diego City Attorney James Chapin. Among the documents and communications requested are W-2 forms, payroll data, direct deposit documents, pay stubs, and data relating to the "DROP" program.

The documents are to be made available to the U.S. Grand Jury by November 17, 2005.

A copy of the subpoena is available at the City Attorney's Office, 1200 Third Avenue, Suite 1620, in downtown San Diego.
